

The future starts on an African farm

It starts on an African farm

Firehiwot and Melkamu, Ethiopia

Are you looking for inspiration for Harvest, Christmas or for other celebrations? Would you like a speaker?

Your local volunteer Ambassador is:

Get in touch with them to find out more on:

Ripple Effect supports families in rural Africa to fight hunger and the climate crisis through sustainable farming training. Every farmer we work with, shares what they learn with their neighbours and communities so another three families benefit too. A ripple effect of positive change quickly spreads – reaching far beyond the farm.

rippleeffect.org